

I am a subscriber to XM radio. I travel a great deal and subscribe specifically in order to be able to have a consistent signal and be able to tune to specific programming regardless of where I am geographically. While I will be unable to get traffic and weather in my "home" market (market size) it will be very useful when I am working in different markets.
Please take no action that will limit XM radio from providing this service.